A white witch is out to save the world with her magic of love from the dark witch who is trying to take away people's happiness. She goes out to find her soulmate and faces a battle that is beyond time and space of this world.

The white witch Fuka is played by Yoshiko Sengen who recently starred in Daybreak (2018) and the animation movie, The Laws of the Universe - Part I (2018), and her soulmate, Yuichi, is played by Kaito Umesaki who is recognized through the movie The World We Live In (2017).

What is Magic? What is the power of miracles? And what does it mean to believe in God? Be ready to be moved by this movie like no other.

I will protect
this world
with all
my heart

By the magic
of love with my soulmate

STARRING YSHIKO SENGEN

STORY "I've finally found you!" — this is what the transfer student Fuka thought as she spots Yuichi in her new classroom she is introduced into. From that day on, magical phenomenon begins to occur to Yuichi and his surroundings. That's right, Fuka is a witch. Not only that, she is the successor of the white witch, and is the last one left in the world. Bewildered Yuichi, gradually begins to grow emotions toward Fuka. But Fuka disappears out of the blue after an incident occurs. Days go by until the two reunites coincidentally after five years, but little did they know that this was the beginning of a battle between the white and dark witch that goes beyond time and space of this world.
