

Meditation Seminar
Bring happiness into your life with the power of love

Love is an invisible force that flows through our relationships and our life. But do you really understand what love is? Where does it come from and how can we fully tap into the great river of love? By understanding love, we can have greater happiness in our lives, become more focused and successful in our everyday activities. This meditation seminar will help guide you through awakening to eternal love.
